Slyke, and justified himself on the ground that for his relief. he was but executing his office as U. S. Marshal. Dennison replied that he felt bound to prosecute people. After argument from lawyers on both sides, Judge Walker said in conclusion :

but that was a reciprocal matter and to use an that others will imitate her example and send on sauce for the gander." He surposed it would lighten the loss of Mr. S. in this matter. be claimed the United States was the gander and Ohio the goose. (Laughter.) But our State if we trench on the federal power, a remedy is and Indiana, as the agent of the American the body, a difference will be made between those taken on their passage, they were adopted with provided to arraign the Sovereign State at that but seemed and highly commended.

The business department of the paper baving done by the man, and those by the legislator.

The business department of the paper baving done by the man, and those by the legislator.

The business department of the paper baving done by the man, and those by the legislator.

The business department of the paper baving done by the man, and those by the legislator.

I have long felt surprise that among the many but few disenting voices.

On motion Resolved, that the proceedings of this but few disenting voices.

On motion Resolved, that the proceedings of this permanence, we feel a confidence in pressing lies. to stay decided for one hour? If the dignity and stowed. The people of Salem and its vicinity will Free Soil or Republican party, that no one should and Mrs. Griffing, after which on motion the meet he was prepared to join in such an aspiration as "If these are the people who claim to be free, Come despot of Russia! thy feet let me kiss, Far better to be a brute-bondsman of thee Than sully even chains with submission like

"Judge Parker announced the decision would be rendered on Monday morning.

MONDAY, APRIL 2D. against Marshal Robinson and Rev. Dennison. was fully executed previous to the last arrest. The act of the Marshal though not a contempt was illegal and subjected him to the penalties of the law for false imprisonment. In the afternoon Judge Parker heard the answer of the marshal to the second writ of Habeas Cor. pus, which was, that he would not produce the body of Rosetta. For this contempt Judge Parker sentenced him to pay a fine of fifty dollars and be imprisoned till the order to produce the girl was southern plantations. And evidently, the Union servient to liberty. Would any but a cowardly Samuel Horton, immediately released on a writ of Habeas Corpus issued by Judge McLean of the U. S. Court. This question involves the propriety of Judge Parkers' interference in the case or in other words the supremacy of the U. S. [Commissioner's court, over all state authority in similar cases. TUESDAY, APRIL 3D.

Commissioner Pendery decided ROSETTA FREE. She was immediately delivered to her guardian Mr. Van Slyke. He decided that as she was brought here by her master, that act emancipated her and she could not be claimed under the friends "C. L. M." and the author of "Homely- enacts as law and executes the bill before her a republican form of government." When pro- Warren Gilbert, Graphs," for their contributions to our miscellany. legislature of which the following is a synopsis: The sad tones of the latter, this week are prompted by the sorrows of her own stricken heart. She has our deepest sympathy.

The Anti-Slavery Bugle.

Sec. 1. Secures the writ of habeas corpus and makes it the duty of the District Attorneys of the several counties to appear as counsel for the although they shall study as diligently the means it affords.

N. Kinney, Margaret Kinney, they shall study as diligently the means it affords. Calvin Daniels, CINCINNATI EXCITEMENT .- Well may Cincinnati and the whole North be excited, at the super demoniac efforts of the kidnapping priest to enslave for life the helpless girl Rosetta. To consumate fugitive, by a fine of not less than $2,000, and imthis result, which it makes one shudder to think of, prisonment in the State Prison not less than five as it assists towards the overthrow of the govern-U. S. Senator Pugh is his willing accomplice. A years. professed advocate of state sovereignty, with de-liberate insult to the people of Ohio, he advocates in open court the judicial supremacy of a kidnap-any keeper of such buildings who shall permit ping commissioner above all the judicial organiza-such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and such confinement by a fine of $500 dollars and stimute and stimu tions of the State. A mercenary wretch he must two years' imprisonment.

such confinement by a nine of $500 dollars and stitutionally made, and when they speak of the two years' imprisonment.

be, who, for the gold which the kidnapping priest

5. Prohibits all State officers from assisting in system asit exists within the States it is with abated Cornelius Scott, or marshal could offer, would thus betray the the capture of fugitive slaves under penalty of a breath and each faint expression of devotion to hu William S. Wilcox, liberties and repulation of his State, which had just honored him with her highest gift, and that state for the consumation of so terrible a crime, as 6. Prohibits, in a similar way, the State militia this state of things continues the slave power will James P. Hannas, the enslavement of a free, helpless and innocent from any interference in such cases.

The people of Ohio can in this case see, with States laws.

States laws.

9. Provides for the expenses under this act.

10. The act to go into effect immediately. The people of Ohio can in this case see, with- who may prefer to act in obedience to the United out the contemptuous overthrow of the whole State judiciary. All right of all persons must go unprotected from assault, except at the pleasure of the usurping federal court or the inquisitorial protection of slave catching Commissioners.

We give a large space this week to the details of this case, which we have abridged from the Gazette. We could give our readers nothing of more absorbing interest or greater moment.

JUDGE PARKER .- The course of Judge Parker in the important Cincinnati case has been straight forward, firm and manly. So far as we can judge, he has shrunk from no responsibility, discharging his duties in a manner creditable to himself, to the Court, and to the State. We should be glad to lay before our readers his excellent decision on the first writ of Habeas Corpus, but our limited space for.

In the course of that decision, speaking of the the time of the election.

Butonan Young has not yet been succeeded as Severnor of Utah.

This affair should get be suffered to pass off in his legal claim to the utmost, as he was the repre- But louder would be the complaints—much greatsentative of a large body of loyal, union loving or the cause for them, if all abolitionists had had their pockets picked by kidnappers as has Mr. Sloane. We hope our friend will send on immedi-"A great deal has been said about comity-ately, the funds, the result of her solicitations, and pld adage, "what was sauce for the goose was their own and their neighbor's contributions to

Mr. Sloane's residence is Sandusky city.

Austria, the N. Y. Tribune says:

nigh has it been, or stavery annihilated.

FUGITIVE SLAVE.

SALEM, OHIO, APRIL 7, 1855.

Ish nation and its provinces now stand, we shall be free from responsibility in this matter. Until then New York will not be guiltles, even though she states shall guarantee to every State of this Union A. L. Power,

4. Forbids the use of all jails or other public forfeiture of office and being ever after ineligible man freedom is smothered by their more ardent pro C. M. McKessey, to any office or emolument under the laws of the

7. Repeals a conflicting law.

8. Provives certain pelalties for State officers

NEW ENGLAND NON-RESISTANCE SOCIETY .- This Society held a convention at Worcester Mass., on Saturday and Sunday the 24th and 25th of last month. It seems to have been a spirited and interesting meeting at which Adin Ballou presided. at Angola, Steuben county, Indiana, by Mr. Foss Priscilla Lukens, A long series of resolutions were adopted express and the Griffings, in an Angola paper.

that the pro-slavery party in Kansas were entirely Dr. John H. Moore, was called to the chair, and fact: a single anti-slavery man has been returned to the was then favored with a song by Mr. & Mrs. Griff-legislature—that the editor of the Kansas Free ing of Columbiana county, Ohio after the concluwas brought about by the Missouri interlopers, Resolved, That the Religion of this land as de-grant to their brothren of the South the right of teresting and important debate in the Cortes, at transit with this, as well as other descriptions of Madrid, on the 8th of March. The Captain Genproperty, in going from one portion to another of eral recommends the limitation of the slave trade. Resolutions, viz:

tance of the issue and the responsibility imposed upon him, and would take time for a full consideration of the outhorities, the citations of which he asked to be furnished him by counsel of both sides.

Rush R. Sloare.—We learned lately from a friend day on the first were of the court of the outhorities, the citations of which he asked to be furnished him by counsel of both sides.

Rush R. Sloare.—We learned lately from a friend disconting funds to defray in part, the fines and costs imposed on Messrs. Solone, Booth and Ryccraft, that her reflects were in her neighborhood, that these fines have been cannot be reight of speech and for the conceiling funds to defray in part, the fines and costs imposed on Messrs. Solone, Booth and Ryccraft, that her reflects were in her neighborhood, that these fines have been cannot be reighborhood, that the response of the court.

Methodist Episcopal Usure. Let very one stand them the whole course of the court in looking the door of the Court have upon the in looking the door of the court of the court of the court in looking the door of the Co honor of our State was impugued, and this court have an opportunity of listening to Mr. Foss on be found prepared to wage war upon Slavery in ing adjourned. had not the power to carry out what goes to sup- Senday afternoon and evening next. We hope, the States, by a very natural and fair construction It may be proper here, to add, that a goodly port inviolate a provision of her Constitution, then to see the Town Hall crowded with listeners, of certain portions of the Constitution of the United States. The first clause of the eighth section and manifested a deep interest in the proceedings HEALTHY RULES .- Speaking of the present union of the first article of that instrument, expressly of the meeting. J. H. MOORE, Chairman. between England and the despots of France and confers upon Congress power to "lay and collect A. M. TINKER, Secretary. taxes, duties, imposts and excises, to pay the debts "Those healthy rules which are good for an in- and provide for the common defence and general "Those healthy rules which are good for an individual, are equally good for a nation. The honest citizen will not form a partnership with the reckless gambler."

and provide for the Common defence and good for a nation. The honest citizen will not form a partnership with the reckless gambler."

welfare of the United States" &c. Now if a propert the fessed abolitionist chooses to swear to support the document, one would naturally expect he would Samuel Hayball, Well said. "Those healthy rules" are good not seek in it every possible means of assailing sla-Ephraim Rulon, only to indicate and regulate the union of individuals and nations, but for aught we can see, they better could be provide for the common defence, or Jane P. Owen, Judge Parker dismissed the case for contempt are equally applicable to the union of States in the promote the general welfare, than by securing Richard Illenden, same government, our own for instance. What freedom to every inhabitant. I have seen Madison Mary R. Illenden, He decided that the re-arrest of the marshal was faith can any one have in the unnatural and inconquoted, I know not how correctly, as averring that Sarah Eggleston, gruous union between slavery and liberty in this clause does confer power over the subject upon Lydia Jones, government. The Tribune sees clearly the hope Congress, and John Q. Adams we well remember Elizabeth Mandeville lessness and unnaturalness of such a union between taught that in ease of war it does so. Practically, Jane M. Chandler, nations and between individuals. Why does it so the Constitution of the United States is just what Peter Marvin, perseveringly maintain and defend our national the pro-slavery community choose to have it in Mary Ann Delano, Union which so unequivocally sets at naught all any given locality. If anti-slavery legislators are bound to submit it to the influence wrought by Dr. John Gully, perience has surely not failed to show the sad re- those portions designed to promote slavery, are Margaret Lewis, results of the attempt of the friends of freedom to they not equally bound to seize upon, and employ Arthur Hope, consort with the desperate, reckless despots of efficiently, those portions which may be made sub- Charles E. Nuckley, cannot last. Liberty must be crucified, and well spirit keep men ever on the defensive, when the Neison Smith, means of aggression lie within their reach, in a Lear B. Russell. warfare they deem not only justificable but praise- Jane Russell, NEW YORK LEGISLATURE AND THE worthy. They will tell us such a policy could J. C. Porter, originate only in a latitudinarian construction of Hartwell S. Russell, The New York Legislature has before it a bill the constitution. Then comes the question what O. W. Porter, for the security of personal liberty, with especial right have they to unhold an instrument which G. T. Mead. reference to the claim of slave-holders for the re- will only achieve liberty for all beneath its juris- Asaph K. Porter. turn of fugitive slaves. It will throw serious ob-stacles in the way of slave hunters. Yet it is radically defective in that it recognizes the right of slave catching or slave rendition, under any circumstances or forms of law. The denial of this outrageous claim should be made outright and dissolution of the Union. This is only to say in other words that the union of these States is preferable to the freedom of their imhabitants, in the John Thayer, outrageous claim should be made outright and unequivocally, and no forms of law thrown around the enormity in any manner. When this is done, and we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question, where the Britand we shall stand on this question where the Britand we shall stand on this question where the Britand we shall stand on this question where the Britand we shall stand on the standard we shall standard we shal fessed abolitionists shall be as earnest in the sup- W. Barris, Sec. 1. Secures the writ of habeas corpus and port of liberty within the government, as pro-sla- N. Kinney. them of assailing slavery, as they now do those George Daniels, ledged fugitive.

2. Gives trial by Jury, and makes the finding of portions which restrict their anti-slavery efforts, it Z. Perry, ment, but it will be more consistent with antislavery Daniel Mann, stitutionally made, and when they speak of the C. Teachout, fessions of fidelity to the Constitution. Whilst James M. Shear, be adroit enough to keep them provided with distant A. D. Angell, outposts upon which to expend their zedl, and N. C. Baker, courage, that oppression and tyranny may reign David Smith, secure and undisturbed within constitutional lim- Stephen Allen, Yours ever,

A. BROOK. Marlboro, April 2nd.

MEETING AT ANGOLA, INDIANA.

We find the following notice of a meeting held sive of radical peace principles and making ap- Pursuant to previous appointment, a meeting of plication of those principles to various usages of the citizens of Stuben County, Indiana was held revolution in 1789 not excepted.

proposed, for the anti-slavery meeting.

we learn from good authority, that he has paid over $3000, the fines and costs in the case; and that it bearing of the admission of the speakers solvers of Rosetta after her delivery to Mr. Van Slyke, and ustified himself on the ground that the character of the revolution in Tribune.

We learn from good authority, that he has paid over $3000, the fines and costs in the case; and that it is from the pen of that the institution of American Slavery, and that it is from the pen of that sity there is of seanning closely the acts of men. Slyke, and ustified himself on the ground that the character of the revolution in Tribune. irrespective of their motives. After the many evi- France in 1789, showing that it was a necessary dences his life has afforded it would be abourd, as result of the oppression of the people of that counwell as unjust, to doubt that Joshua R. Giddings try, by the church, and producing ample documost earnestly desires and labors for the entire mentary evidence from the church itself to sustain Tuesday, with a formidable bowie knife. Harry most earnestly desires and labors for the entire mentary evidence from the church itself to sustain defended himself courageously, and gave the chev abolition of Slavery; but whether he adopts the their positions. The speakers, also denounced allor some exc edingly hard raps on an exceedingabolition of Slavery, but whether he had been some exceeding the method of the Methodist Quarterly meeting held by soft pate. After a contest of some moment act which necessarily strengthens and perpetuates in this place on the Sunday previous, in depriving the Southerner backed off and was met by a city its existence, is quite another question. So of the the abolitionists of the use of the Court Room, for luminary, who kindly escorted him to the Egyptian mother who casts her first born into the Ganges in the purpose of holding a meeting after it should the belief she is securing its best interests, as well have been vacated by the quarterly meeting in the as her own, we cannot doubt the purity of the mo afternoon of that day, and vindicated the course tive, yet we fell no less certainty of the mistake persued by Messrs. Foss and Griffing on that occommitted by the act. In what text of the Chris- casion. Invitation was extended to those who ewes no more comity to the United States than A. T. Foss. -Mr. Foss, of New Hampshire, has tians' creed dogs any one find it written that when wished to oppose the resolutions, to take a part in shey do to us-and ought not to owe so much, for spent some six months past in Michigan, inquisition shall be made for the deeds done in the discussion, but no one accepted it. Vote being the same way. How many times were they to by the friends of the cause, and have eminently whose love of Liberty is only a little less than their meeting be published in the Hoosier Banner. The have a writ of habeas corpus decided before it was advanced i.s interest wherever they have been be veneration for the constitution, and Union, in the audience were then favored with a song, by Mr.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WALKER FUND.

Richard B. Merritt

Emma Kimball,

Mrs. Lattimer.

John Stretch.

Cyrus Fuller.

Richard Glazier,

Reynold Cornell,

Dickerson,

legislature—that the editor of the Kansas Free ing of Columbiana county, Ohio after the conclustate was ducked in a pond by a mob in consequence of a speech he had made. This result quence of a speech he had made. This result and Cuvier, and Constant? Napoleon was an who were camped by thousands in the territory at veloped in the teachings and practice of its leading denominations, in relation to the rights of man. Constant a Swiss. Who carried the Netherlands In the course of that decision, speaking of the alleged right of the master to transit through our State with his slave, he says: "We once thought that the courtesy due from one State of this Union to another, would require of the free States to treesting and important debate in the Cortes at the time of the election.

Constant a Swiss. Who carried the Netherlands and a just reverence for God, is a manifestation of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bolder out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity of France during the contact of the world,—the Infidelity of France during the ling denominations, in relation to the rights of man and a just reverence for God, is a manifestation of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bolder out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity of France during the contact of the most dangerous form of Infidelity of France during the contact of the most dangerous form of Infidelity of France during the contact of the most dangerous form of Infidelity of France during the contact of the Metherlands and a just reverence for God, is a manifestation of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bolder out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the most dangerous form of Infidelity and the bold out of the mos Jesse M. Gale, Esq., also introduced the following Savoy? Who was Catharine, of Russia, that made transit with this, as well as other descriptions of property, in going from one portion to another of our common country. Subsequent reflection, however, and the most careful study of this case that well as satisfied us of our time would permit, has satisfied us of our constitution, "There shall be no slavery in this State," stands as an insurmountable barrier to the articular of such courtesy. * The moment a large, with the consent of his master, or in his company, breathes the air of Ohio, his remaining with this master becomes dependent upon his own will."

The late Car was a devourer of such uswappend, breathes the air leading to the appointment of the slaver in the substrate our common country. Subsequent reflection, however, and the most careful study of this case that the Spanish community and the Cortes seem unity and the Spanish community and the Cortes seem unity and the Cortes seem unity and the Cortes seem unitian the Spanish community and the Cortes seem unity and the Cortes seem unitian the Spanish community and the Spanish community and the Cortes seem unitian the Spanish community and the Cortes seem unitian the Spanish community and the Spanish community and the Cortes seem unitian the Spanish community and the Cortes seem unitian the Spanish community and the Methodist part of Country Dealers, the great power? She was a German woman. The Captain General recommends the limitation of the State and special points of the Spanish community and the Methodist Quarterly Meeting and the the great power? She was a German woman. The Captain Resolution, how the Cortes seem unitian the Spanish community and the Methodist Quarterly Meeting and the the great power? She was a German woman. The Captain Resolution, how the Cortes of sale the Type Captain, the Methodist Quarterly Me gence of the communities where they were produced. A list of the newspapers which the Emperor daily scanned might possibly astonials some persons.

proposed, for the anti-slavery meeting.

Resolved, Therefore that the prevention of the use of this house for said meeting was a gross violation of the right of a free people to free speech meaning than a more economical one. It applies Salem, Columbians County, Ohio.

A chivalrous Southerner, attacked the colored Tombs, where he now remains .- Leader

The trial of Theodore P -ker, Wendell Phillips, and others, commenced in Boston on the 3d inst.

HYMENEAL.

On the S1st ult by Rev. T. E. Inman, at the Receipts for the Bugle for the week ending Apr. 4.

3,00-651

2,00-552

1,50-545

Joshua Cope, Colerain, W. A. Densmoor, Cambridge City, A. M. Keith, Springdale D. H. Morgan, Monroe, Dr. C. Penrson, Salem, ANTI SLAVERY MEETINGS.

10.00 in the Town Hall on the subject of Slavery on Sun. and with European affairs generally. It will be a

6,00

6.00

5.00

ANNUAL

ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION. IN CINCINNATI, OHIO.

To be held on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday rights of industry—of the absolute and perfect the 25th, 26th, and 27th days of April, 1855. the 25th, 26th, and 27th days of April, 1855.

and, finally, of the Christian principle of peace-quire him to record, that still, nearly a sixth part of the people remains in the most abject slavery. 5.00
That still the Slave Power rules paramount in the Policy, in the Religion, and in the Business of the country; and it constantly grows more oppressive and exacting; not only driving colored men and women to unpaid toil, treating them with bardana women to unpaid to the sword: and the gradual overthrow of those gigantic military institutions of Europe, which menace the tranquity of the world, are the strongest bulwarks of despotism, and the most formidable obstacles to the advancement of civilization, and the triumphs 5.00 baroes cruelty, and robbing them of every right; of pure and undefiled religion. 1.00 but forcing men who suppose they are "free and Dollars per Annum, to be paid in Edvance. Sub-1,00 equal," to be participants in outrages, shameful to scriptions will be received by the Editor of the 1,00 a Christian and Republican people—such as the Bugle, Salem, Okio. 1.00 Repeal of the Missouri Compromise, the passage

2.00 the Annexation of Texas, and many similar ini-1.00 quities. We hope and trust that this is not to be always Have opened, in Johnson & Horner's block, th

1,00 80: 1.00 Therefore we entreated who adore God, and who Ohio, where they are constantly taking pictures 1.00 tove Truth, Justice, and Humanity, to come to other to counsel and to devise peaceful, but effect others in durability, beauty of finish and artistic 1,90 gether to counsel, and to devise peaceful, but effec 50 tual ways and means for the abolition of this ac ample and improved order, consisting in part of ma-50 cursed tyranny.

So that the Republic may, in truth, approach 25,00 much nearer to the glorious position of a Model 5,00 Government than it has yet attained, and mankind 2,50 have cause to rejoice.

Let us, then, assemble, and do what in us 2.00 lies to help arouse the nation from its fatal leth 1.00 argy. 1.00

Distinguished advocates of this great movement, 2.00 from various parts of the country, are expected to 1.00 take part in the Convention. Honest differences 1.00 of opinion, as to the best means of accomplishing 1.00 the great object, may exist; but in this we see no 1.00 sufficient reason to hinder Anti-Slavery people of 1.00 every grade, sex, or color, from acting realously COLUMBIANA, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, ONIA. 1.00 together against the common evil; and we earnest-1.00 ly invite the hearty co-operation of all.

On behalf of the Executive Committee of the 1.00 Ladies' Anti-Slavery Society of Cincinnati. C. DONALDSON, Chairman.

COMMITTEE. Sarah Otis Ernst, Henry B. Blackwell, Mary Mann, Julia Harwood, Seth Foster, Kesiah Emery.

2.00

1.00

1,00

1,00

1.00

1.00

2,00

1.00

Elizaleth T. Coleman, Andrew H. Ernst, Mary DeGraw, John Jolliffe, Edward Harwood, Christian Donaldson

A MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

1.00 made previous to his departure, his friends are cated. Our rooms are in the 10,00 ferrful he may have met with foul play, as his tes-2.00 timony had excited the ire of a batch of counter-1,00 feiters, who had been previously arrested in this county. Munson's friends are said to live near neat and comfortable. Mt. Morris, Livingston county New York. He is KNOW-NOTHINGS.

Mt. Morris, Livingston county New York. He is a man about 36 years of age, near 6 feet in heighth, at the Court House in Angola on the evening 18th inst. for the purpose of discussing the character on the Know-Nothing movement, from which we extract the following instructive statements of the prevailing religion of the United States.—

Or. John H. Moore, was called to the chair, and state the following instructive statements of fact:

"Has any mind shed greater lustre on illustrious was then favored with a song by Mr. & Mrs. GriffAbove information of the surpassed no where in the State.

O'AMERA, is a powerful quick-worker. We ware an about 36 years of age, near 6 feet in heighth, with a slight impediment in his speech, and student to the following instructive statements of the following instructive statements of fact:

"Has any mind shed greater lustre on illustrious was then favored with a song by Mr. & Mrs. GriffAbove information of the citizens of Stuben County, Indiana was held at the Court House in Angola on the evening 18th in the South Carolinian an able article on the Know-Nothing movement, from which we extract the following instructive statements of Indian Doctor. He rode away a stock horse 164 hands high, jet black except his his hind feet which were white below the pastern joints.

Above in Angola on the evening 18th in the Court House in Angola on the evening 18th in the Court House in Angola on the evening 18th in the Court House in Angola on the evening 18th in the Court House in Angola on the court House in Angola on the character on the Know-Nothing man able article on the Know-Nothing man able article on the Know-Nothing man able article on the Know-Nothing m

Any information concerning the man or the Editors, especially in Western New York are requested to notice the above.

To Printers! A RARE CHANCE FOR A GOOD BARGAIN!!

THE subscriber offers for sale the TYPE, CASES, RULES, LEADS, &c., that have been used Political papers or those devoted to special re-forms are alike unsuited to present a question is-volving so much of truth as this, one which needs the fairest the most candid and careful examination and consideration.

Our paper has been free to its character wimit ting almost every variety of opinion and open as Arts, science, literature, philosophy both spirit ual and natural, the science of association or re-organization of Society, and individual development, will each receive their due share of atten-

Our contributors a few of whose names we gird will be warmly greeted by our readers Mrs. Dall, Mrs. E. Oakes Smith, Mrs. E. J. Eames, Mrs. F. D. Gage, Mrs. E. Chency, now in Paris, Mrs. P. D. Gage, Mrs. E. Chency, now in Paris, Mrs. Peter, Lizzie Linn whose story of "marriage the only alternative," opens with the first number of the New Year and is quite worth the price of the

Its price is one dollar per annum, payable the variably in advance. All business letters should be addressed post-paid to S. C. Hewitt, 15 Frank-lin St. Boston Mass.

Communications designed for the paper to he Editor, P. W. DAVIS.

THE EMPIRE.

A FIRST-CLASS BRITISH JOURNAL, ED ited by George Thompson, late M. P. This Eng-lish Newspaper is peculiarly suited to such American readers as desire to become familiar with the ANDREW T. Poss, of New Hampshire, will speak policy, the politics, and the institutions of England, 10.00 day afternoon and evening, April 8th. Afternoon 15.00 meeting to commence at two o'clock,—Evening 25.00 meeting at 7 o'clock.

6.00 faithful exponent of popular progress, and the chronicler of all the important reformatory movements of the age. Constant and ample notice will be taken of the state of the anti-slavery question on both sides of the Atlantic. The following extract from the Editorial Address embodies the fun-damental principles of the Empire:—

"What I have been during the whole course of my public life, that I shall inflexibly remain,—the ardent friend and supporter of Fice-trade and the 5.00
Another year, in the middle of the Nineteenth 2.00
Century, has passed away, and is added to the his tery of the nation.

And the duty of the faithful historian will require him to record that will nearly a faithful find the still nearly and finally of the Christian rejudices of the nation.

25 of a Fugitive Slave Act, the plundering of Mexico, THE PLACE TO GET YOUR LIKENESS HUNT & BOONE largest and finest Daguerreian Rooms in Eastern chinery to polish the plate. By it we are enabled highest notish wh ture cannot be taken. Our

OUR SKY-LIGHT IS OF MAMMOTH SIZE AND SUFFICIENT TO TAKE SIXTY PERSONS ON A SINGLE PLATE.

PRICES RANGE FROM 374 CTS. TO TEN DOLLARS. Ladies and gentlemen are requested to call ond examine our specimens. Salem, Dec. 17, 1853.

BUCKEYE FOUNDRY. ENOS L. WOODS,

Steam Engine Builder.

STEAM ENGINES of various sizes, constructs d upon the latest approved plan, that cannot fal made of good material, and warranted to give all good satisfaction as any other? Feb. 11, 1854.-tf

MANLEY & CARPENTER'S PREMIUM DAGUERREAN GALLERY

IS now completed, and ready for reception. We Putto II. Musson left this neighborhood about the first of August last, for Alliance, since which time no trace can be found of him. From threats us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the content of the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the content of the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the confort and convenience of the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the confort and convenience of the confort and convenience of those who may favor us with a call; in short, we are permenently less than the confort and convenience of the confort and convenie entire attention shall be to render full satisfaction. horse, will be thankfully received by Joseph A. Sick or deceased persons taken at their fooms.

> AMERICAN HOUSE, SALEM, O. OUR SKY-LIGHT

N. B. Persons wishing Pictures taken on Gate vanized Plates, can do so without extra charge: P. M. June 31st, 1852.

J. C. & W. SAVERY, Wholesale Druggists&Manufacturing Chemiets. No. 311, Market Street, above Eighth, PHILADELPHIA.

Coats, Vests, Pants, &c., Made to Order and War ranted to Give Satisfaction. The Tailoring Business in all his Branches,